

City raises a toast to art

City's art frat and glitterati descended for this celebratory bash that also saw the opening of the exhibition, Carnival of Dissent, a group show of young artists and filmmakers who position themselves on the cusp of political activism and creative practice. The highlight of the evening was Melting Attire, a live performance by artist Shweta Bhattad. Those seen at the event included model Indrani Dasgupta, poet Jeet Thayil and artist Bose Krishnamachari among others.
